PERSONALS.

Chas. Jackson's Best Sweet-Nut Tobacco
The amusement season is about played in this section.

Lettuce, onions, radishes, new Irish potatoes and other early vegetables were in market yesterday in small quantities and fancy prices.

The noon train yesterday was minus the passenger coach, it having been left up the road on account of a broken pair of wheels. No other damage, however. A new coach was attached here and she went on all right.

The citizens of Knoxville and Knox county will find the new B. Howe Sewing Machine, which unites the good improvements of all others, making a perfect machine, at an extremely low price, at W. W. Woodruff & Co's.

The Star, on College Hill, has changed hands, and the following gentlemen are managing it: Mr. W. M. Cooke, Chief Editor; Mr. I. Gaines, Manager; Mr. S. Myers, Editor; and the herculean Frankie Farabee, Fighting Editor. The peculiar qualifications of these gentlemen point them out as especially fitted to the positions which they occupy. Mr. Farabee is the "right man in the right place" perhaps more than all others.

PERSONALS.

Rev. W. W. Bays, pastor of Broad Street Church, after a severe illness of some weeks, is able to be out again, and will preach at Broad Street Church to-night.

Mr. Thos. L. Williams, Secretary of the Congressional Yellow Fever Investigating Committee, arrived yesterday from Washington, to spend a few days at home, and will return in about a week to wind up the business.

Mr. John Anderson, and his newly wedded bride, formerly Mrs. Mims, of Leadville, arrived in the city a day or two since, and are receiving the congratulations of friends.

Mr. Peter B. Akers, of Macon, Ga., arrived in the city Friday night.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following are the licenses issued from the County Court Clerk's office during the past week:
John Reynolds and Emma Reynolds.
Isaac H. Wittenberger and Lizzie W. Lewis.

FINE INSTRUMENTS.

Messrs. Marshall & Co., of the Knoxville Music House, have just received several Chickering and Webber Pianos which are now on exhibition at their place of business. They are probably the finest instruments ever brought to Knoxville, and for beauty of tone can not be surpassed. They are constantly adding to their stock of musical merchandise, and propose to keep the best instruments of every description made. We are glad to note that they are being liberally patronized, as enterprise always deserves success.

THE STRANGEST THING YET!

That people will go through life, or any part of it, with the system debilitated and run down, the liver, kidneys and blood failing to act properly, rendering the person a burden to himself and disagreeable to his friends, when a few doses of Hart's Antibilious Discovery will remedy it all.

McMullen & Co. are receiving a new stock of Men's and Boy's Boots and Shoes. Good goods and low prices is their motto.

War and Gold—A hotel war based on gold prices. In order to accommodate both classes of travelers, the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards, per day. An elegant restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Hotel.

TRIAL OF S. L. SAUL.

No Conclusion Reached in the Investigation Yet.

Adjourned Again till Monday, Which will Probably be the Last Day.
The preliminary investigation before J. M. King, Esq., of the case of S. L. Saul, Jr., charged with burning his house and goods in London, in December, 1878, has not yet been terminated, although five long days have been consumed in the hearing, and it seems to lose none of its interest, from the size of the audience. Upon the re-assembling yesterday morning, a State witness, was called. Was asleep in his livery stable at time of fire, aroused by Teague hallooing; first on the stairs, kicked open the front door; went in; fire was about dark, going towards ceiling, and it was pretty hot. Went back to stable for bucket; tried to open front door, couldn't; went to front door, got out the oil tank. Teague spoke of powder and oil, when all got away. Didn't see the broom; knew they were there, on the opposite side from where fire was seen. Thought the fire could have been put out by energetic means after I got there. Discovered no scent of coal oil burning.

E. C. SILVESTER,

Cross examined—Saw a shimmering light as he came to the fire, through the slats blind in the rear window below. Heard Teague hallooing that the store was on fire below. Teague said he had been hallooing for a half hour. Said something about oil and powder, wanted to be taken out.

FRANK TEAGUE,
a very important personage in the case, was here put on the stand. Is 23 years old in May; was in the employ of S. L. Saul & Co., as clerk; at the fire, had been there just a month; came from Georgia. Can't remember all who were in the store when Saul came from the train the night of the fire. Think when Saul left with Fountain, Bell and Miller he said come out boys, it is time to close up. The key of the front door stood in the door inside. Each of the three in the store had a key to one lock on front side door, which was locked. Do not know who kept the key to the other lock, on same door; had never seen it; suppose Bell had it. Witness looked front door after boys went out. One of the boys, who he had before going to bed, Jim Fisher came, knocked on front door, called, "Frank, let me in," once or twice. Let him in and sold him a scarf. He then went out; witness closed the door and went back to fire place, got a cigar, lit it, and went out of front door; stood on platform a short time; then went back, put out lights and went up stairs to bed. No one was in the store when witness went to bed. He was waked by smoke, which was as thick in the room as it could be, almost suffocating. Started down stairs, but was met by the heat and couldn't go further. Went back up, raised the window and hallooed "Fire!" several times. Was so excited don't remember how he got down, only that he came out at the window. Didn't draw all clothing but he put, and $5.00 in money, all that he had. Borrowed clothing and went to Saul's house, where has been boarding after the fire. Remained in London till Jan. 30, and went to Texas. Stopped with an uncle, Frank Teague, at Hill Plain, near Sherman. Said there three days; went to Blue Ridge, Columbia county, to a cousin, then went 15 miles farther, hired to man named Samuel to clear ground. He remained there something under 19 days and returned to make crop from man named Short. Said there three weeks, when Saul came and both went to Sherman and came back together. Saul stayed at London, witness went on to Bristol to Saul's father's, where has been till started for Knoxville last night.

Cross-examined—Born in Cass county, Ga., was staying in store of George Saul, brother of defendant, at Eater, Ga., near Cathoun, at $10 per month, before coming to London. Saul came there twice, last time hired to him. Saul said would pay what was right, but no contract. After came to London Saul said thought witness worth $25 a month. Don't know whether Saul knew how much was getting at George's or not. Was George's only clerk; suppose had $25 or $30 dollars when he there. Witness with Saul at London, paid no board, nothing said about it. Saul owed witness a little at time of fire. Got ticket from J. G. Tipton at London for Sherman, Texas. It cost $10.00. Saul paid for it. Bought no ticket to any point in Georgia. Saul and Frank Fells started on train with witness. Upon arriving at Cleveland Saul went towards Dalton, witness went to Chattanooga. Didn't go to uncle's house, but left on first train for Texas. When parted with Saul it was not with the intention of attending a law suit. Witness left Georgia. It was understood between them witness was to go to Texas. Never heard of the above mentioned law suit till Saul mentioned it that day. Fells heard conversation. Saul told witness in Fells' presence to meet him at Tunnel Hill, Georgia, after staying all night with his uncle in Chattanooga. At this time both Saul and witness understood the latter was to go down to Texas. Had no understanding with Saul to talk this way before Fells. Knew Fells was going on train about 15 minutes before it started. Don't remember talking with Saul about Fells' business on the train. Don't think there was an agreement that Fells was watching them, but understood from Saul's talk before Fells that Saul knew Fells was watching them. Nothing was said in Fells' presence about it. The reason witness thought Fells was watching them, some people around London thought Saul was going to run witness off. The object of the talk about going to Tunnel Hill was to deceive Fells and throw him off their track. Wasn't to tell anybody he was going to Texas. Had that agreement with Saul before they got ready to start. Told people what he asked about the matter was going to Georgia. Don't remember to have heard Saul tell any one. Saul told witness to tell with him to Atlanta, but he (witness) proposed to go to Texas. Besides the ticket Saul gave witness $4 in money before starting. He also bought witness a suit of clothes the morning after the fire and gave him a pair of boots. Paid him $1.00 when he got to Bell Plain, Texas. Witness boarded a train at Saul's after the fire, until he left for Texas. Gave Saul a note for the clothes, ticket, money, boots, etc. The note was for either $27.40 or $27.40. The reason Saul told witness not to say he was going to Texas, some people suspected witness and Saul, and Saul said if they knew witness went to Texas as they would say Saul run him off. Suppose they deceived people in that way.

A Visage Revolving in Yellowness

That of a "heavenly vision" if belonging to one of curative can hardly be described as attractive. But worse than this is the index of a disordered liver, of a liver that needs arousing and regulating. The remedy is at hand prompt, efficacious. A cure of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will expel the bile, and rid the system of the blood and divert it into the proper channels, open the bowels, remove the dyspeptic symptoms which invariably accompany biliousness and counteract the rapidly developing tendency to dangerous congestion of the liver which must ensue and cast upon the skin and whites of the eyes a yellow hue. The pains through the right lower rib, side and shoulder blade the nausea, fullness of the tongue and unpleasant breath which draw all clothing but he put, and $5.00 in money, all that he had. Borrowed clothing and went to Saul's house, where has been boarding after the fire. Remained in London till Jan. 30, and went to Texas. Stopped with an uncle, Frank Teague, at Hill Plain, near Sherman. Said there three days; went to Blue Ridge, Columbia county, to a cousin, then went 15 miles farther, hired to man named Samuel to clear ground. Saul stayed at London, witness went on to Bristol to Saul's father's, where has been till started for Knoxville last night.
